

Where We

Come From

Our journey began in 1935, when Don Ignacio Trapani and his wife Rosalía started cultivating sweet citrus fruits.

In 1965, their youngest son Vicente launched the industrial side of the business by installing the first essential oil extractor.

Thanks to this innovation, the company became a consolidated international benchmark in the comprehensive use of lemons.

The legacy continues today, now expanding into orange production as well.
